

Since 1867 CCA

Making a Difference for
You and Colorado

Our History

CCA has united beef producers since 1867 to provide a unified voice for Colorado's beef industry. In fact, CCA is the nation's oldest cattlemen's association, founded nine years before Colorado became a state!

Our Mission

To promote the interests of Colorado's beef industry and protect Colorado's land, water and forage resources.

Our Commitment

CCA is committed to enhancing the investment of the grassroots beef producer through legislative representation, research and education, information distribution, public relations, issues management, and allied group cooperation.
